504 Plan

If you believe your child is entitled to special education services under the 504 Plan, you should contact your child's school district and request a meeting. At this meeting, you should discuss with school officials:

- The specific accommodations your child needs to access the curriculum
- The specific accommodations your child needs to participate in extracurricular activities
- The specific accommodations your child needs to access the general education curriculum
- The specific accommodations your child needs to access general education extracurricular activities
