Child Care Resources

Boys and Girls Club
Website: http://www.bgca.org/military
Children of National Guard, Reserve and Active Duty families, who do not live near or have access to a military youth center, can receive a free membership to their local Boys and Girls Club

Exceptional Family Member Program (EFMP) Respite Care
Website: http://usa.childcareaware.org/military-programs/military-families/
Navy - Help families with children with special needs by providing 40 hours of respite care per month
Air Force - 12 hours of respite child care per month for families of children with special needs
Marine Corps, Marine Reserves, Wounded Warriors and Fallen Marines - Varies
Army - Currently being updated visit army.childcare@gsa.gov

Military Child Care in Your Neighborhood (MCCYN)
Website: http://usa.childcareaware.org/military-programs/military-providers/military-fee-assistance/
Provides fee assistance for families of Active Duty Service Members who are unable to access on-post child care. Providers may be eligible for the program if they have a valid state license, annual licensing inspection report and must be nationally accredited.

Operation Military Child Care (OMCC)
Website: http://usa.childcareaware.org/military-programs/military-providers/military-fee-assistance/
Provides fee assistance for families of deployed or mobilized National Guard, Reserve and Active Duty service members during the duration of the deployment. Providers may be eligible for the Operation Military Child Care Program if they have a valid state license and annual licensing inspection report.

SitterCity for Military Families
Website: www.sittercity.com/military
Department of Defense pays SitterCity memberships for Army, Marine, Navy, Air Force, Reserve and Guard to help you find babysitters for before/after school, homework help, last minute caregivers, special needs care, and school holiday care.

For more information on assistance and other resources for off base child care connect with Parent Network at (716) 332-4175 or email support@parentnetworkwny.org.